*CONFESSION OF FAITH

Westminster Confession of Faith XVIII.4 – Of the Assurance of Salvation

True believers may have the assurance of their salvation shaken, diminished, and lost in various ways: as, by negligence in preserving of it; by falling into some special sin which wounds the conscience and grieves the Spirit; by some sudden or violent temptation; by God's withdrawing the light of His countenance, and allowing even such as fear Him to walk in darkness, and to have no light: Yet, true believers are never utterly destitute of that seed of God, and life of faith, that love of Christ and the brethren, that sincerity of heart and conscience of duty, out of which, by the operation of the Spirit, this assurance may, in due time, be revived; and by the which, in the meantime, they are supported from utter despair.
